Aljoma Lumber, Inc. and United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, AFL-CIO, Local Union No. 1554. Case 12-CA-19444-2

October 20, 1998

DECISION AND ORDER

BY MEMBERS FOX. LIEBMAN, AND BRAME

Pursuant to a charge and an amended charge filed on May 4 and July 14, 1998, respectively, the Acting General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint on July 16, 1998, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 12–RC–8119. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint and submitting affirmative defenses.

On September 11, 1998, the Acting General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On September 14, 1998, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain, but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of its objections to the election in the representation proceeding.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a Florida corporation, with an office and place of business located in Medley, Florida, has been engaged in the business of the nonretail sale of lumber. During the 12-month period preceding the issuance of the complaint, the Respondent, in conducting its business operations described above, purchased and received goods and materials valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points located outside the State of Florida.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held July 25, 1997, the Union was certified on January 30, 1998, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:¹

All full-time and regularly scheduled part-time drivers, production and maintenance employees employed by Respondent at its 10300 N.W. 121st Way, Medley, Florida facility; but excluding all other classifications including dispatchers, office clerical employees, guards and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

About February 3, 1998, the Union requested the Respondent to bargain, and, since that date, the Respondent has refused. We find that this refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By refusing on and after February 3, 1998, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

¹ On February 9, 1998, the Respondent filed a motion for reconsideration of the Board's Decision and Certification. By order dated May 20, 1998, the Board denied the Respondent's motion.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by the law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).

Reasonable steps shall be taken by the Respondent to ensure that the notices are not altered, defaced, or covered by any other material.
